

VOLUME 21.

MARION, CRITTENDEN COUNTY, KENTUCKY, AUGUST 24, 1899.

NO. 19

NEWS IN BRIEF.

A dozen Mormon missionaries are to be sent into Ohio.

Iowa Democrats and Populists have endorsed the same state ticket.

At Catton, China, 10,000 robbers surrounded 500 soldiers killing and wounding 350 of them.

Jas. Benoit, an infidel who died at Kansas City last week left his fortune of $150,000 to religious organizations.

The New York Alderman have passed a resolution appropriating $150,000 for Admiral Dewey's reception.

Eight hundred tons of provisions and other supplies for the hurricane sufferers in Porto Rico left Philadelphia Monday.

A letter from Porto Rico says 2000 people lost their lives by the recent storm. The crops are totally destroyed. Children are dying by hundreds from starvation and exposure.

Speaker Reed is still noncommittal as to his political intentions, but leading Republicans in his district say he has not changed his plans and will give up his seat in Congress.

Gov. Bradley has issued a proclamation, at the request of the Secretary of War, calling on citizens of Kentucky to aid in sending aid to the storm sufferers in Porto Rico.

Squab Bolin, colored, was hanged by a mob at Fulton, Ky., Saturday night. He had been arrested in Tennessee on the charges of robbery and murder. The mob took him away from the officers and hanged him to a tree.

A race war is threatened at Russell, Miss. Two attempts have been made to assassinate Dr. P. N. Wells, who is a negro thief on his premises, and the whites have warned the negroes that any further hostile movements will bring on a conflict.

Saturday two Mormon elders were arrested in Taylor county, Ga., for refusing to pay poll taxes. The elders claimed they were preachers and exempt. The judge of the court stated from the bench that he refused to recognize them as preachers, and assessed a fine.

Anarchists have created in Paris scenes of the wildest disorder known in that city since the Commune. In response to appeals by two anarchist or revolutionary organs, a big anarchist meeting was held in the afternoon. Speeches of the leaders were so revolutionary that the police arrested the speakers. The crowd then began marching the streets, smashing windows of churches, destroying altars and images and other contents of the churches, in the meantime fighting with the police, seriously wounding several of them. The disorders were repeated at night, several more churches being desecrated and several cafes destroyed.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

The Association

The Ohio River Association of Missionary Baptists convened with Good Hope church, Livingston county, yesterday, and will be in session three days. Rev. W. R. Gibbs, of this county, will preach the introductory sermon.

The Army Worm.

The army worm has made its appearance in this section and is laying havoc with the meadows and pastures. It sweeps everything before it except plantain, and in some instances it is going into the corn field. It is not confined to the country alone, but is in some yards in town.

Henry Robison Acquitted.

Henry Robison who killed a young man named Smith in White county, Ill., some two months ago, returned to the home of Mr. Terrel Robison, his father, in this county last week, happy as a boy could well be. He was put on trial for the killing at Carmi last week and acquitted without any effort on his part. When the evidence for the State had been presented by the prosecution, the judge said to the State's attorney: "You have failed to make out a case," and then turning to the jury he said: "Gentlemen, if you see this as I do you can sit where you are and render a verdict." This the jury did at once without a dissenting voice. The evidence for the defense was not introduced.

Died a Stranger.

A man who gave his name as J. D. Marks, died at the Piney camp-meeting Wednesday of last week. He came to Hill's spring about two months ago, driving two horses in a spring wagon. He was in poor health and remained there hoping to be benefited. He went to the camp-meeting last week and while there became worse and died. He declined to tell anything about his people; he did state that he came from Missouri, where his wife and two children died, and that he went from North Carolina to Missouri. He also stated that his mother lived in North Carolina, was old, but in good circumstances, and he did not want to trouble her with his misfortune.

His team and wagon was sold by order of court here to defray his funeral and other expenses. He had a trunk but no papers by which he could be identified.

Miles-White.

On Thursday evening, Aug. 17, 1899, at the residence of Mr. J. C. Bourland, in this city, Miss Bulah White and Mr. E. C. Miles were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, Rev. W. H. Mile officiating.

A score or more of close friends witnessed the happy affair and tendered their heartiest congratulations to the bride and groom.

The bride is one of Marion's handsomest young ladies; she is a daughter of the late L. F. White and a most charming young lady.

The groom is a popular young man of Marion; he served through the Spanish-American war and counts his friends by the score.

The Press extends congratulations.

Health Notice.

We are threatened with an epidemic of fevers, and the only way to avoid it is to place the town in a healthful sanitary condition, it is therefore ordered by the Local Board of Health that the citizens be and they are hereby notified to clean up their premises, cut all weeds and burn them, and burn all decaying vegetation, remove and burn the trash from back premises, clean them out and up thoroughly and use lime around the premises as a disinfectant. An inspection will shortly be made, and persons who have failed to comply with this order will be proceeded against as provided by law.

Don't Be Imposed Upon.

Always insist on getting Foley Honey and Tar, as it is positively, absolutely and unqualifiedly the best cough medicine. Accept no substitute.

R. F. Haynes.

Prof Charles Evans.

Prof. Charles Evans, superintendent of Marion schools, is conducting the institute. He has shown himself to be a stirring, vigorous conductor, leading and drawing thought from the most intelligent body of teachers ever gathered together in the county. Prof. Evans is a teacher—proper, broad, progressive, practical, and through his command of language and good delivery is enabled to most fully present his subjects so as to command the closest attention from his hearers. His many interesting talks on the teachers' profession and business; his presentation of new thoughts and ideas will encourage and help the teachers of Union county through the ensuing school year, and they thank Supt. Parish for the wise choice of a conductor.

Prof. Chas. Evans, the instructor, contributed to the pleasure of the evening by reading a selection from James Whitcomb Riley's works and one of Ben King's. Both of the selections were rendered charmingly. The reader's interpretation of the selections indicated that he fully appreciated the beautiful sentiment of the genius that inspired them and demonstrated his ability to make an audience feel as he did. He has a good voice and delightful delivery and we predict that some day he will win fame and plaudits on the lecture platform, for which work he evidently has very decided talent.—Morganfield Sun.

Magistrates Meet.

Monday the magistrates held a call meeting to pass upon the delinquent tax list of Sheriff Pickens. The list, as returned, consists of 454 delinquent poll tax payers, which is a much smaller list than that returned by any sheriff in several years. The list was ordered, certified to the constables for collection and an order allowing them one third for collection was made, and it was again ordered that the list be published in the Press after Oct. 1.

The following claims were allowed: T. J. McKinney, $25.00, for services as bridge commissioner. T. A. Harpending, $5.00, for services as bridge commissioner and commissioner in having rock work done on road.

W. C. Tyner, $3.50, for commissioner in having rock work done on public road.

Piney Camp-Meeting.

Piney camp-meeting closed Thursday after a very successful revival of the church. There were a number of conversions and a number of additions to the church. It was one of the best meetings held there for years. Revs. Boone, Hughey, Price and Oakley did the preaching.

Piney camp ground is one of the oldest in the country, the first meeting was held there in 1812, and with the exception of two years, meetings have been held there regular every year since, making 85 annual camp-meetings held on that spot. We doubt if there is another camp ground in the United States now used as such, that will out date old Piney.

She Regrets It

County Judge Rochester has received a letter from Mrs. Farley, mother of the little wails left at the depot, imploring him to send the children to her at Paducah, and repenting her desertion of them. This will not be done. Two or three parties have offered to take the oldest child, and the fiscal court directed the judge to find a home for the younger one without sending it to the poor house.

To Road Overseers.

To the road overseers of the road from Tolu to Marion: Now is the time for you to work the road, and if it is not properly worked and prevented from getting in a bad condition this winter you will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law. Call out your hands and work the road.

No Relief For Twenty Years.

I have been troubled for the last twenty years with bronchial affection and at times have been bedfast. Have tried a great many cough remedies but found no relief until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar. I can honestly recommend Foley's Honey and Tar as a quick relief, reliable, pleasant to take and a sure cure for diseases of the throat and lungs.

THE RAILROAD

Is a Certainty Says Mr. Haase, of the Spar Company.

Mr. Haase, general manager of the Eagle Spar Company, paid us call Tuesday and assured us that the building of the railroad from Salem to the I. C. was a certainty.

"Our president, is absent from Wheeling," said Mr. Haase, "and we can not proceed until he returns, which will be in a very few days. Then, I feel justified in saying, he will sign the papers. We made the people a most liberal proposition, because we needed the road, and must have it to abandon our mining property. It is some four miles further by way of Crittenden Springs, but Mr. Wilson made us a very liberal offer and I think it will be to our interest as well as his to accept it."

MISTAKE MADE

By Colored Men of the North Says Prof. Council.

Huntsville, Ala., Aug. 16.—Prof. W. H. Council, President of the Agricultural and Mechanical College for Negroes, at Normal, Ala., delivered an address recently at Bismarck, Kas., and spoke at length upon the prejudice entertained by negroes of the North for the Southern States. To the northern negroes Prof. Council said:

"Colored men of the North make a great mistake in abusing the South. They forget that the South was an ante-room in which their fathers exchanged the clout of the barbarian for the dress of civilization—the blessed ante-room in which 4,000,000 miserable savages were changed into 4,000,000 industrious beings—a great missionary tent in which 4,000,000 of fetiche worshippers were transformed into 4,000,000 of Christian citizens of one of the most powerful governments of this age. Let the South alone and look to your own neglected opportunities and correct your own wrongs. We of the South thank you for your sympathy, but, my friends, do not forget your selves."

THE BOLTERS

Nominate a Full State Ticket at Lexington.

A Big Crowd—Mostly From the City of Louisville.

Lexington, Ky., Aug. 17.—The State Convention of bolting Democrats convened here and nominated the following ticket:

For Governor—John Young Brown
For Secretary of State—E. L. Hines.
For Attorney General—Lawrence T. Tanner.
For Auditor—Frank A. Pastuer.
For Treasurer—John C. Droge.
For Superintendent of Public Instruction—Reverend E. O. Gurrant.
For Commissioner of Agriculture—D. W. Vandiver.

About 2500 people were in attendance, and as there was no roll call, there is no way telling how many counties were represented, or who represented them. It is well known that free railroad passes were furnished many who came and posed as delegates, and free entertainment at the hotels is also openly charged. John Young Brown made a speech.

The platform recites that the action of the Louisville convention is not binding; that a law should be passed under that clause in the new constitution which says fraud and bribery vitiate the title to an office; that W. J. Bryan and the Chicago platform shall be indorsed, but does not mention Jo Blackburn; the Goebel election law is denounced. The platform favors certain amendments to the school book law and condemns the state administration rule. The report was adopted unanimously. Nominations for governor were then called for, and Theodor H. Hallam, a drunken wreck of Kenton county, who was defeated for state senator by Goebel by 5,000 majority, nominated John Young Brown.

While there are some good Democrats mixed up in the affair, they are simply hoodwinked and being unconsciously used by the L. and N. railroad as tools to accomplish a purpose which that great grasping corporation dare not undertake with itself openly at the front. Mr. Goebel, the Democratic nominee, since his advent in public life at Frankfort has stood like a Lyceides at Thermopylae against the advance of the L. and N. railroad and other corporations upon the interests of the people. He has encouraged the displeasure of these corporations more than any other man in the State; his public record along this line is above reproach, and his most inveterate enemy dare not attack it. His stand in these matters has been approved by the best men in the State, and not many moons ago, John Young Brown himself considered Goebel one of the best friends the plain people had. These corporations have an unquenched and unquenchable hatred for the man and they would move heaven and earth to keep him out of the executive chair.

To fight openly and in their own name would expose themselves and show to the people of the State too plainly the animus of their unholo grudge. They must find other opposition, and warm it into life. There was dissatisfaction over the State Convention at Louisville, as there is over every state, county and precinct convention. The enemies of Mr. Goebel rushed into the breach; they added fuel to the flames, and fanned the fire with all the ingenuity acquired by years of experience in attempting to manipulate Kentucky politics, years of experience as lobbyists at Frankfort in endeavoring to shape legislation. The Democrats who had real or imaginary grievances growing out of the Louisville Convention were encouraged to bolt; the wrongdoers, if there were such, at Louisville were magnified a thousand fold. The Louisville Post, always a corporation paper, always opposed to Mr. Bryan, Mr. Goebel and other men who stand for the people, unlimbered its guns; the Dispatch purchased by the L. and N. railroad because it had access to the Bryan followers in Kentucky, became at once the prototype of the Pharisee who thanked his God that he was not like other men. Every whisper of discontent was made a sermon of revolt. Emancipators of these two papers went over the State and never before was such a volume of abuse, and such shameless misrepresentation spiced up, sent in and printed. The effort of the Post made to force Palmer & Buckner upon the Democracy of the State in 1896 was similar to it, and was made for exactly the same purpose—to divide the party and thus easily accomplish its defeat. The Democratic party has been gaining strength since '96. The rise of the trusts, the wanton display of the wolfish greed of organized capital has aroused the people to such an extent that an open fight under the banner of mammon would be fatal to these corporations in Kentucky. Hence they entrench themselves behind dissatisfied Democrats, and becoming the power behind the throne, they seek to drive the dagger into the heart of Democracy over the shoulder of Democrats, whose motive perhaps are good, but whose judgment is poor and whose hopes are made steadfast by the hue and din of men who were treacherous to the cause in 1896. Will Democrats fall an easy prey to this adroit effort of the enemy, or will they remain steadfast and follow where Bryan and Blackburn lead?

POPULIST FOR GOEBEL.

Former Leaders of Davies County To Speak for the Nominee.

Owensboro, Ky., Aug. 15.—The Hon. Thomas S. Pettit, who was the Populist candidate for Governor four years ago receiving over 12,000 votes, will in a short time take the stump for Goebel. He is one of the most enthusiastic Goebel men in the State. He served in the constitutional convention, and in the long Legislature with Mr. Goebel, and considers him one of the bravest and ablest champions of the rights of the plain people he has ever known. Mr. Pettit has received many letters from Populists in the First, Second, Third and Fourth districts urging him to make speeches in their communities, and so far as he is able he will do so. The Hon. Ben T. Birkhead, another Populist leader of Davies county, who was in the constitutional convention and Legislature with Goebel will begin making speeches for him next Saturday at Beech Grove. Nearly all the Populists of Davies county seem to be quite as enthusiastic for Goebel as Pettit and Birkhead.

DELEGATES CALLED.

How the Louisville Crowd to Lexington Was Secured.

(From the Times.)

Just to show how the Louisville crowd for Lexington was drummed up, two circumstances will serve.

Ed Hess a time keeper for the Tobacco Trust, which assisted the L. and N. in selecting anti-Goebel delegates to the late convention, went about the city last night with a pocketful of L. and N. passes soliciting people to go to Lexington. He also held out the inducement of "free doings."

A beer slinger at the "Buck," known as "Sheehey Sam," went down into the red light district with a bunch of L. and N. passes working up an interest in the bolters' convention.

How They Worked It.

The Brown bolters did all in their power to get the country people to attend their Lexington pow-wow today. In Fulton county they even sent out after men and beseeched them to go, offering them not only a free ticket, but free entertainment while away from home. George Bowder, a well known farmer, went with them last night merely for the trip. He had on a Goebel badge when he left here and said he intended not only to wear it while away, but to vote for Goebel in November. We merely cite this instance to show what a fizzle the so-called Brown movement is in this county.—Fulton Leader.

One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR

FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce

a candidate to represent Crittenden and Livingston counties in the next General Assembly of Kentucky. His candidacy is subject to the action of the Democratic party. Election November 1899.

While various important questions are springing up to interest the average man, the trusts go right along springing up prices to interest everybody.

In most instances you "pay your money and take your choice," but upon this occasion you can take either Goebel or Taylor without any outlay whatever.

Old Atlas seems to have broken loose from his ancient Greek mooring and turned over his job of holding the world on his shoulders to Mr. Y. B., of Kentucky.

Politics have not gotten so hot in this county yet as to melt the picks and shovels of the gold hunters, and the main talk is, "I have dug, I am digging, I will dig."

Fulton comes to the front with another lynching. The frequency of these affairs in that section is probably due to the fact that Fulton has the reputation of two States to look after.

John Young Brown, the bolting candidate for governor, will speak at Bowling Green Saturday. This most excellent old gentleman seems bent on following the woods' path blazed out by the old pioneer of 1896—Simon Bolivar Buckner.

The determination of the fiscal court to have the delinquent tax list published has reduced the list from about 700 in 1897 to about 450 in 1898, and there will be further reductions. There is virtue in printers' ink.

It's not the Louisville convention, nor its methods, that is worrying the L. and N. railroad, it's the man that was nominated for Governor, and its efforts in the past in making that corporation the mark that is the objectionable feature about the man.

Even Henri Watterson remarked in New York the other day, that he was about to believe that Bryan is "the greatest living American." We are glad Henri does not yet believe, for by this he might create some doubting Thomases, whereas there is none now.

Talk about machine! The Lexington bolters appointed themselves delegates, wrote the platform and named the ticket before hand, and went up on free passes. The Goebel machine is a jawbreaker to a harp-of-a-thousand strings as compared to the Lexington arrangement.

The bolters at Lexington ignored Blackburn in their platform, and the motive power of the machine would have done the same thing for Bryan could it have done so without giving away the little game it is attempting to play upon the Democrats of Kentucky. It's two to one that machine will be fighting Blackburn and snarling at Bryan before the fight is over.

Some of the gentlemen who were prominent features in the bolters' convention at Lexington were members of the Kentucky legislature in 1898 and at all times voted against the bill providing for cheaper school books. Now they have the nerve to stand on a platform that is supposed to "demand" cheaper books. But, they as well as the public, know that the platform aforesaid is bait on the hook thrown out to catch unwary voters.

The resignation of Thomas B. Reed as congressman for the First Maine District has been handed in. The attitude of Mr. Reed, who is, by the way, one of the biggest men in the country, mentally as well as physically, on the question of expansion and the war in the Philippines has probably had something to do with his resignation. His guarded public utterances on these questions indicate that on these he is more of a Democrat than a Republican.

It is an open secret that the great majority of the delegates to the bolters' convention at Lexington went up to the famous gathering on free railroad passes, and many of them had free hash. This alone is pretty conclusive evidence of the power behind the movement, and its the same power that gave vitality to the bolt against Bryan. If there are good bands for Democrats to be in, Mr. Bryan is a false prophet and his doctrine is an unauthorized edition of Democratic faith. Goebel may be bad, but his condition is not such as to justify Democrats in dancing before the King Herod that is anxious to have Mr. Reed's political head displayed on a

The Democrats are rallying to the appointments of Goebel and Blackburn, and the Republicans were out in big numbers to hear Taylor open his campaign, and Basil Duke, John Whallen, Dick Knott and other lesser lights who lead the bolt in 1896 are rallying around Mr. Brown, and so conspicuously are they playing their part in the race that the Louisville Commercial rises to remark:

"The Louisville and Nashville railroad owes it to the business interests of the State and to its own stockholders to call in Gen. Duke and John Whallen. These gentlemen are all well enough in their places. They make a strong team when it comes to breaking down a damage suit or evading taxes, but they are soft marks in politics, and they learn nothing by experience. Just now they are contributing something toward the election of Mr. Goebel to the governorship. They are too conspicuous."

There is not much discussion as to the identity of the Republican candidate for the legislature. Dr. C. S. Young, of this county, and Mr. King, of Livingston, are the only names so far mentioned in connection with the matter.

REPUBLICAN'S OPENING GUN.

Five Thousands Republicans Said to Assembled at London.

London, Ky., August 21.—Five thousand Republicans are here to day, attending the barbecue and speaking, which mark the opening of the Republican campaign in Kentucky. A fine dinner of barbecued meats was served, and six special trains brought the crowds.

Caleb Powers and Judge Pratt spoke this morning at 11 at the fair grounds; and this afternoon Congressman Boreing led off, beginning at 2, and was followed by Taylor.

Taylor devoted considerable time to praising the State and National administrations, and giving numerous figures alleged by him to show that the State is better off than ever.

Mr. Taylor denounced the work of the last legislature at length, especially the Chinn school book bill, the McChord railroad bill and the Goebel bill. He declared that the latter was the crowning infamy of the session, and that other issues dwarfed into insignificance when compared with the Goebel law. He devoted a third of his speech to it, alluding frequently to its iniquities. He finished with an earnest appeal to men of all parties to vote for him, pledging his earnest and prompt efforts to repeal the Goebel law. He said that he would himself support another candidate who was opposed to the Goebel law, if he thought that candidate could win. He believed, however, that the hopes of the people were in Republican success.

Indians at Navajo Springs, A. T., shot a gambler to death, scalped him and mutilated his body.

Belated news from the North Carolina coast estimates the loss of life during the recent hurricane at sixty.

Out of 1,000 men who went into the Kotzebue country, in Alaska, last fall, over 7 per cent. it is estimated, died from scurvy or metragic deaths.

An alleged interview with Admiral Dewey by a correspondent of the London Mail quotes him as saying the Filipinos should be granted autonomy.

Just remember that gray hair never becomes darker without help, while dark hair rapidly becomes gray when once the change begins.

No Right to Ugliness

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or kidney trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good looking, charming woman of a run down invalid. Only 50 cents at J. H. Orme's drugstore.

Hamilton Clark, of Chaucery, Ga., says he suffered with itching piles twenty years before trying DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Two boxes on which completely cured him. Beware of worthless and dangerous counterfeits.

IN THE LEAD.

Reasons for Insuring in the Mutual Life of Kentucky. Because:

The Old Mutual Life Insurance Company of Kentucky stands as a rock wall of protection to her policy holders. She has more policy holders in Crittenden county than any other regular company doing business in the county. She has paid more money to policy holders in the county than all the other companies combined. She was the first company that ever issued an absolutely irrevocable contract. Her cash values are higher than those of any other company charging same rate of premium. She pays all claims immediately upon receiving proofs of loss. She is organized under the strongest laws of Kentucky and all her assets are invested in Kentucky. She has given entire satisfaction to policy holders under all circumstances. The company issues policies upon all the approved plans, and parties desiring insurance will find it to their interest to write or call upon W. L. Adams, agent, Marion, Ky., who will take great pleasure in explaining the policies fully to them.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

Mrs. A. J. Bennett and Mrs. Geo. M. Travis Pass Away.

Mrs. George M. Travis died at her home east of Marion Monday morning after a very brief illness. She was ill at the camp meeting last week but went home much better, and improved so rapidly that her friends were not in the least apprehensive of any danger. She was taken suddenly worse Sunday night and died Monday morning. She was a daughter of the late F. N. Wilson, and was an excellent Christian woman.

Mrs. Bettie Wallace-Bennett, wife of Mr. A. J. Bennett, died very suddenly at her home near Tolu, Saturday, Aug. 19, 1899.

Mrs. Bennett was the daughter of Mr. Wm. Wallace, a member of a large and influential family, living some years ago in the Western part of Crittenden county. She was born April 29, 1847. March 14, 1872 she was happily married to Mr. A. J. Bennett, and through 27 years was a devoted wife, a loving, affectionate mother, and a kind and generous friend.

She was a member of the Presbyterian church at Tolu and had been a devoted Christian for many years. We have rarely seen such a sweet, gentle, modest disposition or a more devoted family. She never seemed to be strong and for many years had been a great sufferer, yet was ever patient and hopeful. In her last illness she was sick only two days, when paralysis of heart brought her relief. And though the end came suddenly, yet she "came to her grave like a shock of corn cometh in his season." A Christian character ripe for heaven.

She left a husband, one daughter, Mrs. Forest Harris, and four sons, who with many neighbors and friends mourn her death. Yet

"Why do we mourn departing friends,
Or shake at death's alarms?
'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
To call them to his arms."
